

Contents

Introduction

1. Perpetrator Introjects and Attachment Typology According to the SPIM 30 Model
2. Limitations of Traditional Approaches with Dissociative Trauma Patients
3. Indication Criteria for Different Therapy Approaches
4. Basic Criteria of the SPIM 30 Model
5. Terms and Definitions
6. Abstinence and Setting Modifications
7. Magical Thinking and Perpetrator Attachment
8. Processing Stages of Transference and Introject States
9. Concurrent Individual and Group Therapy
10. Group Therapy: From Trial Run to Long Term Social Commitment
11. Implementing Individual Settings in Group Therapy
12. Specific Group Settings for Ego State Work
13. The Mediator Principle
14. Case Examples
  - Mr. Q. (DDNOS)
  - Mrs. T. (DDNOS)
15. Research at the Trauma-Institute-Leipzig
16. Slander and Betrayal in the Psychoanalytic Community
17. Slander and Betrayal Within the Therapeutic Relationship
18. Slander and Betrayal During the German Reunification
19. Practical Material and Training

Abbreviations

Figures and Tables

References